Municipal League to Push Passage of Tax Refund Legislation

Seek to Have Bill Passed to Refund Percentage of Tax to Cities

A compromise bill that would satisfy both Gov. Dwight Green and the Illinois Municipal League on the refund of state sales tax revenue to municipalities was recommended to Mayor Frank G. Wallin, of Waukegan, at a meeting last Saturday by State Reps. Nick Keller, Harold Kelsey and Thomas A. Bolger, and State Sen. Ray Paddock.

Mayor Wallin had planned the meeting to name a sponsor for the league's bill.

Instead, the group agreed three other steps should be taken before sponsorship. They were:

1. That the executive and judicial committee of the Illinois Municipal League confer with Governor Green and other state officers in the present administration.

2. A state-wide conference between the governor and city and village officials to come to some "reasonable compromise" for return of part of the tax money.

3. Delay the proposed bill until after the mayoralty elections in April.

It was intimated that the group's action stemmed from Gov. Dwight Green's opposition to diversion of revenue from the state treasury. The representatives commented, however, that the governor had told them at a house and senate meeting that "he was interested in helping cities, particularly schools."

Nothing was said about Governor Green's present reaction to the sales tax refundable bill.

When the closed session broke up, Paddock declared: "I feel that a new bill can be worked out between the administration and municipalities."

We must have the good will of the administration before going further," said Keller. "Also, I'd suggest that cities hold up the bill until we see what decision the Supreme court upholds in the Butler bill case."

He indicated that the Butler tax act may bring additional revenue to cities, such as is proposed in the sales tax bill prepared by the Illinois Municipal League.

Bolger and Kelsey agreed with those statements.

Relatives of Antioch Residents Critically Injured in Accident

Car Crash Sunday Kills Woman, Sends Five to Kenosha Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. George Hildebrandt, and August Roepke, of Bassett Station, Wis., and George Roepke, of Twin Lakes, Wis., cousins of Henry Mau and Mrs. Fred Paasch, of Antioch, were badly injured Sunday noon in an automobile accident in which a woman was killed.

The car driven by Mr. Hildebrandt collided with a car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gilbert, 2112 Clark St., Milwaukee, at the intersection of Rtes. 50 and 41 (Skokie highway) in Wisconsin.

All of the injured were taken to the Kenosha hospital.

Mr. Hildebrandt will be crippled for life with a broken left leg, a rod having been driven through the knee. Mrs. Hildebrandt has fractured ribs and internal injuries besides bruises to the head. George Roepke, her brother, has a broken collar bone, and his brother, August, has a broken shoulder blade.

Mrs. Gilbert was killed instantly and her husband received fractures and bruises.

The car driven by Mr. Hildebrandt was headed east and that of the Gilberts south. The Hildebrandts on their way to Kenosha to visit a brother and the Gilberts were enroute to Chicago. Relatives here were told that Gilbert had thought he could beat the change of the light but it changed before he reached the intersection while Hildebrandt already having started with the green light was unable to stop before hitting the Gilbert car.

Anderson Will Celebrate Eightieth Birthday With Party in Melbourne, Fla.

C. K. Anderson, Lake Marie, has issued invitations for a celebration of his eightieth birthday anniversary at his winter home, 301 Indian River Dr., Melbourne, Fla., on Feb. 25.

A number of Antioch residents have been invited and it is expected that those who are now in Florida will attend. Mr. Anderson with his wide circle of friends has sent invitations to various parts of the country and his guest list will be extensive. The day's program will include nine holes of golf and putting for the ladies followed by a luncheon; eighteen holes of golf in the afternoon for the men with a dinner at 6:30 p. m. for all at the Melbourne Country club.

"I am happy to be one who has reached the age of four score years and still retain my good health, a fair golf score and the enjoyment of refreshments and food," said Anderson in his novel invitation which illustrated the program and an encircle "80".

To acquaint Antioch people with the calibre of the Antioch team which has been drawing big crowds elsewhere, the school children will be admitted free at tonight's game and adults through a coupon appearing elsewhere in this paper will be admitted for 10 cents.

Future Farmer Members Destroy Farm Pests

Members of the Antioch Chapter, Future Farmers of America, recently destroyed 919 English Sparrows; 192 mice; 93 rats; 29 European Starlings; and 15 crows in a campaign conducted by them against farm pests.

Wesley Bock, who lives near Millburn, was the high member with 72 sparrows, 44 mice, 34 rats, and 2 crows to his credit. He received a prize of $2.50 from the chapter.

Others who received prizes are: Richard Raether; Gordon Wells; John Conrad; Jack Heick; Allen Geibel; Carl Geng; George Miller; Noel Elfering; Benny Drury and Joe Kirby.

It is estimated that this campaign has prevented damage to farm products to the extent of at least $2,000, according to C. L. Kutil, Vocational Agriculture Instructor at the Antioch Township High school.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Keeney are vacationing in Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferris are spending a few weeks vacationing in Florida.

Rep. Nick Keller Appointed to Six House Committees

Representative Nicholas M. Keller, Antioch, announced this week that he had been appointed to six committees of the House of Representatives. Included in the list of committees on which Keller will serve are the important Military and Veterans Affairs, Executive, Liquor Regulation, Waterways, Fish and Game, and a member of the Commission on Small Business and Inter-state Government.

These appointments are a distinct recognition of the fine service being performed, and are an honor to both Keller and the district.

Pleased with Fish and Game Appt.

Local sportsmen who were contacted expressed pleasure at the news that the district is to have a representative on this committee, and many are of the opinion that Rep. Keller will be able to block the current move being fostered by the Illinois Federation of Sportsman's clubs to open the Chain O' Lakes to commercial fishermen.

The Federation, which is holding its annual convention in Springfield this week, is backing the move to allow commercial fishing on the lakes here, for reasons which are not entirely clear to local residents. The main reason put forth by officials of the Federation is the theory that the Chain O' Lakes are overstocked with fish causing a resulting stunting of their growth. Local resort owners and sportsmen say that allowing fishermen the use of nets to take all the full size fish from the lakes will not solve that problem, if one exists, which is doubtful. Reports from fishermen indicate that the opposite is true and that while fish are more plentiful than in former years, the percentage of full grown fish remains about the same.

An appeal to Keller as a member of the committee has been made and it is felt that, unless much pressure is brought to bear in behalf of the move that it can be blocked.

Grade School Defeats Fox Lake in Two Games; Play Central Tonight

The Antioch grade school basketball team won both of its games from Fox Lake grade school here Tuesday evening. The first team defeated the Fox Lake first team 15 to 9, and the second team beat the visitors 12 to 6.

Antioch will go to Libertyville this evening to play Central grade school in a curtain raiser to the game between Libertyville American Legion and Great Lakes. The graders will go on the floor at 7:15.

The Legion-Navy game is expected to be the outstanding game of the week because of Great Lakes' victories over the other navy teams in the Ninth Naval district and Libertyville's successes.

Sequoits Close Season Friday With Grant Hi; Win From Warren Here

First Game at Wauconda Tourney Next Week to Be Against Warren

Antioch High will bring its basketball season to a close tomorrow evening at Fox Lake in a return game with Grant High. Only the district tournament at Wauconda next week will then remain and the outcome of their play there.

The first tournament game will be with Warren whom the Sequoits defeated by a score of 52-36 here Tuesday afternoon. The winner of that game will play the winner of the Lake Forest-Wauconda match preceding.

The victory Tuesday offset the loss by the Antioch players to Barrington there last Friday night. Barrington took the long end of a 57-48 score. The home team was never so far ahead that the outcome was certain. In a high scoring game such as that and with only nine points difference at the end it was anybody's game.

In the game Tuesday afternoon Warren started out strong and led at the end of the first quarter 15-8. The Sequoits then turned on the power and led at the half 23 to 20 and at the third quarter 39 to 25.

If Antioch doesn't become too over confident it should win tomorrow evening from Grant for the Fox Lake team has been in a long losing streak.

Eight Antioch Bowlers Finish in the Money at Sweepstakes Tourney

Robert Hunt and Emil Hallwas finished 11th and 12th in the Second Annual Sweepstakes Bowling tournament at the Recreation alleys this year as the highest of any Antioch bowlers.

Hunt's prize money was $25 and Hallwas was $20.

Ed LaBant, Jr., of Arlington Heights with a handicap of 156 pins claimed the first prize of $200 while Bob Dietz, of Waukegan, was second.

H. Drayer, of Arlington Heights, had a high six-game of 1205 pins but his handicap was only 104 and he tied for fourth.

Other Antioch bowlers finished as follows:

Ray Horan, 15th; Ray Quadenfeld, 17th; Vern Heath, 19th; Ed Kania, 20th; Henry Pape, 27th; and O'Hairrell, 48th.

There were 263 entries, 23 more than the estimate.

Chain O' Lakes Boat Club Plans Better Race Competition This Year

The Chain O' Lakes Boat club held its first meeting of the year Saturday evening at the Lakes club with an attendance of 150 including the wives. Motion pictures were shown and other entertainment provided following a smorgasbord.

The racing season this year is expected to be more interesting than last year because of the entry of more boats. Gus Gundstrom's "Viking" and E. F. Buelow's "Chickie" were taken to Miami, Fla., this week in preparation for races there on March 1 and 2.

Frank Velesky, program chairman, said that the new boat George Kramer's plant is building for him is not yet ready, but should be ready for the races on the local lakes this summer.

The Briscoe Engineering Co., is building a new engine for Ed Zender's Hex No. 2, and Leo Krasak is building a new motor for Joe Friezlinger's "Tramp", and they will be in competition here this summer.

Antioch Youth Plays In El Paso Golf Tourney

Fred Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawkins, Sr., of Antioch, was one of four players in an exhibition golf tournament at El Paso, Tex., which hit newspaper headlines because of the playing of a professional in the quartet.

Young Hawkins is a star amateur from the Texas College of Mines. He substituted for a professional player and while he shot a 36 both out and in, Harden, the professional stole the show with a 33 and 31, taking only 25 putts for the 18 holes.

The match took place Feb. 4 at the El Paso Country Club before a gallery of 300.

Dean Williams Awarded Emblem for Service in USO Camp Shows Abroad

Dean Williams, son of Mrs. Lillian Hand and grandson of Mrs. W. R. Williams, has received a Civilian Service emblem authorized by the War Department as a recognition for his splendid record of service with the USO-Camp Shows, Inc., in entertaining troops overseas.

Williams, known by the stage name of Eric Woodley, was a member of a troop entertaining G.I.'s in the Hawaiian Islands, at Kwajalein, Roi Namur, Saipan, Tinian, Guam, and two Jima Islands. He is quite adept as a dancer.

Auxiliary Will Sponsor Poppy Poster Contest

The Antioch 748 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary is again sponsoring the annual Poppy Poster Contest in the schools, according to Mrs. Frank Kennedy, president.

National prizes in the contest amount to $300 for the three classes: Department prizes of $10.00 for each class with an additional prize of $5 to Junior Auxiliary members winning in the various classes; and the local Unit will give prizes of ($3, $2, $5.00) for each group, stated Mrs. Eileen Lewin, Unit Poppy chairman.

There are three classes in the contest; students in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades in the first class; students in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades make up the second class; while the third class is composed of entrants from the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. The Unit contest ends May 1st, after which the posters will be used for local display purposes in connection with the annual sale of the memorial poppy. The winning Unit posters will be entered in the Department contest August 1, 1947, and the Department winners will go on to the national judging.

Among the rules of the contest, all of which can be supplied by Mrs. Lewin, are that the posters must be 14 inches x 20 inches; the words "The American Legion" or "American Legion Auxiliary" must be incorporated in the design and that in addition to the poster carrying a picture of the Flanders Poppy, it should have a fitting slogan or title not to exceed ten words.

In order to better acquaint the public with "Poppy Day" when the little red flower will be sold on the streets of Antioch, this contest is yearly conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary. Last fall, at the National Auxiliary Convention in San Francisco, Illinois won first place in Class I. Winners of the local contest last year were: 1st, Bonnie Lee Nielsen; Georgia Saylor, 2nd; George Nelson, 1st; Rose Ann McGreal, 2nd.

"Each year prior to Memorial Day, millions of Americans wear the poppies in memory of those men who died in Flanders Fields and throughout the First World War," said Mrs. Lewin. "All through the winter months these flowers are being manufactured by disabled World War I and II veterans in hospitals in Illinois and the returns from the poppy sale will be used for rehabilitation work." Assisting Mrs. Lewin with the poppy poster contest and sale are members of the Auxiliary.

Lions Vote To Buy Fieldhouse For Boy Scouts

Date Set For Annual Athletic Banquet at Antioch High

Directors of the Antioch Lions club voted to purchase a surplus army barracks, for use as a Boy Scout fieldhouse, at a meeting Monday evening. The building will be sixteen by forty-eight feet in size and will be shipped here from Mississippi. The club will retain ownership of the building, according to Roman B. Vos, president of the Lions club, and will expect the Boy Scouts to pay the freight and other charges incurred in getting the building into service.

Co-sponsorship of Scouting here will be shared with the American Legion post in the future, and it is believed the money obtained from the Legion dance to be held this Saturday evening together with money now in the Scout treasury will be sufficient to set the building up and ready to use.

Tentative arrangements have been made with Harold Cardiff, local scout master, for placement of the building on his property on north Main street.

The annual athletic banquet for high school athletes will be held on April 14, according to F. J. Bud Arnold, chairman of the committee. Other Lions appointed to the committee include Hans Von Holwed, Arthur Trieger, Fred Oschmann and Clarence Olson. The banquet was postponed from an earlier date due to programs which have been scheduled by the club for its meetings, among them being the showing of the 1946 World's Series ball games at the March 10 meeting.

The board of directors also went on record as favoring the promotion of a carnival to be held sometime in August. Vos said that an attempt to hold the event early in the month would be made to try to avoid the chances of inclement weather.

Rescue Squad Orders New Uniforms; All Will Take First Aid Course

New Truck Not Yet Ordered But Expected Soon; Alarm Was Just Test

Members of Antioch's Rescue squad plan to appear in new uniforms by spring. Fourteen suits have been ordered for the squad, according to Herman Holbeck, captain. The uniforms will be in dark green and will be brought into use mainly during the summer when four men are kept on duty at all times.

Members of the squad will take an advanced course in first aid work in the next 10 days or two weeks. This is required by the Red Cross through which the squad is accredited every three years. An expert from Waukegan will conduct the classes.

The committee on purchase of a new squad car is still racing with obstacles in getting the car, but hopes to get action before long. Many manufacturers contacted do not guarantee delivery of the especially constructed truck before two years. The squad wants the truck this summer and hopes it will find some manufacturer appreciative of their needs to rush delivery.

The blowing of the alarm siren this week was merely a test. There had been a short in the wiring and after repair was made the siren was blown to see whether or not it would work. It does.

V.F.W. Has Good Social Meeting Tuesday; Dance Attendance Only Fair

The Veterans of Foreign Wars had a good social meeting Tuesday evening in guild hall at which motion pictures were shown by a recruiting station representative from Waukegan.

Pictures of the Battle of the Bulge, Kwajalein and the Marshall Islands are shown along with pictures of USO entertainment.

Only a fair crowd attended the VFW dance last Saturday commemorating the sinking of the Maine. The dance was at Pasadena Gardens and music was furnished by the Victor Parise orchestra.

Showdown Due

An enormous mass of proposed labor legislation has been introduced in the two branches of Congress. And, when it comes to the showdown, the country will find out whether our law-makers are determined to live up to the pledges they made when running for office.

The basic issue is: Do your alleged "rights of labor" come ahead of the rights, liberties and opportunities of the people of the United States? Labor has gained enormous power—but it has refused to accept compatible responsibilities. It has ruthlessly disregarded the public interest. It has subjected its own membership to what amounts to a dictatorship. Through its excesses, it has lowered the prestige of this government in the eyes of the world.

The principle of the closed shop must be outlawed by statute. We must reaffirm the principle that every man has the right to belong to a union or not belong, as he sees fit. The law protects the worker against employer discrimination if he is a union man. It must protect him against union discrimination in getting and holding a job if he is a non-union man.

The employer must be permitted to openly discuss labor issues with his workers—precisely as the union leader is permitted to do. The present gag on management in this regard is an affront to every principle of freedom.

Lastly, collective bargaining must no longer be permitted on a scale which gives unions utter and monopolistic power over the production of goods and services. The coal and steel strikes, which almost completely closed those vital industries, show the danger of industry-wide agreements.

These are fundamental points. Congress must also take decisive action on other problems, such as the outrageous "portal-to-portal" suits under which labor claims billions in back pay for work which was never performed.

The Vital Force

To an American, steeped in ideals of liberty, the most appalling trend in the world today is the growth of collectivism. Practically all of the nations of the Old World have turned their backs on freedom, and accepted, willingly or otherwise, the cruel ideology of the super-state. Under collectivism, the individual is nothing, except insofar as he can be used to serve the purposes of the government. The state is all.

This leaves the United States almost alone as the citadel of a tradition of freedom which goes back to the Magna Carta. And this imposes on the government and the people of the United States an enormous obligation—to prove that the dignity of the individual still lives, that the rights of man are a fact and not a myth, that freedom is a vital force that will not be denied.

This obligation can be discharged in only one way—by resisting every encroachment by the state upon the privileges, the rights and the prerogatives of individuals. If we permit government to dominate us in our economic life, we will eventually have government domination of all other facets of existence. Freedom is an absolute—once we temporize with it, we pave the way for its destruction.

Those nations which wish collectivism are entitled to it. But it must never be confused with freedom or allowed a foothold here.

Stores Raise Living Standards

It takes a great war, with its unprecedented drain on our labor and resources, to reduce this country to an economy of scarcity. In normal times, the average American consumer enjoys the fruits of an economy of abundance.

Retail stores present an accurate gauge of our unprecedented living standards. Every kind and character and quality of goods is found on their shelves. The needs of all tastes, all pocketbooks, have been anticipated and met. That is not true of any other country. Abroad, good stores are usually found only in the larger cities, and they are patronized most extensively by people of relatively large income. The person who lives in the village has small choice when he goes to market.

Chain systems and progressive single unit stores must be given credit for the present scope and efficiency of American retailing. They reach into the smaller centers of population, and offer consumers selections of goods comparable to those found in big cities. No matter where you live, regardless of the distance from the manufacturing areas, standard goods of known quality and value are immediately available.

The retailer is the consumers' link with the vast American production machine. Without that link, the abundance made possible by mass production would be denied to millions. The store, like the factory, directly affects the well-being of us all.

given by A. H. Damkoehler of Milwaukee. Mr. Damkoehler offered nine selections for his program and followed the scheduled program with three request numbers.

Mr. Damkoehler is organist and choir director of Immanuel Lutheran church at Cedarburg, Wis., and organist demonstrator for Bradfords House of Music in Milwaukee. His program for Sunday afternoon was:

Panis Angelicus, Franck; The Rosary, Nevin; Toccata, Dubois; Londonderry Air; Ave Maria, Gounod; Aria, Bach; Come Sweet Death, Bach; Prelude and Fugue in D Minor, Bach; Claire de Lune, Debussy.

Cooking Hint

Set your casserole or fruit pie pan in a larger pie pan or cookie sheet before placing it in the oven. If its contents spill over in baking they will land in the pan, which is much easier to clean than the oven.

Seafaring Nation

Behind the story of Norway's seagoing bent lie the influencing factors of geography. With an area only a little larger than that of New Mexico, this country has a jagged, fjord-cut coastline of more than 12,000 miles. Most of its people live on or near the coast. A northern climate and mountain-crested surface discourage large-scale farming. Norway's seafaring warriors and explorers have made history from the time of the Vikings. The development and expansion of the merchant marine, however, came only after the 18th century.

Sizing Kiddies

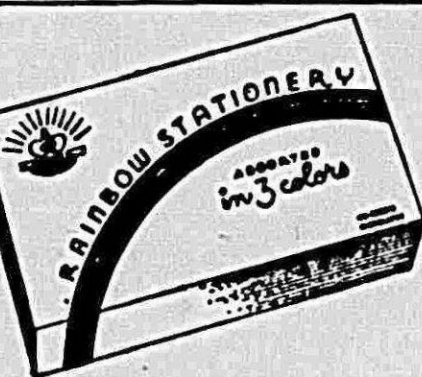

Children's clothing should be sized according to height and hip circumference rather than by age.

Making Soap

Mild soap may be made from only three ingredients, fat, water and lye. If hard fat, such as beef or mutton, is used, the proportion is six pounds of fat, six cups of water, and one can of lye. If a soft fat, such as lard or bacon fat is used, use the same amounts of fat and lye, but reduce the water to four cups. The soap may be made stronger by adding one and one-half tablespoons of borax and one-half cup of ammonia.

Odoriferous Chemicals

Most unpleasantly odoriferous compounds known are those containing sulfur, scientists say. New uses have been found for one particularly malodorous group of these compounds known as mercaptans, which include the chief constituents found in the defense secretion of the skunk. Some of the mercaptans are mixed with gases in minute amounts to serve as a warning agent if a leak develops in a pie line or container while others are valuable in the manufacture of organic chemicals having a variety of industrial possibilities.

Nylon Yarn

Nylon yarn is non-porous and absorbs so little moisture that wet nylon fabrics dry very quickly. This quick drying property is particularly advantageous in such articles of clothing as hosiery, foundation garments, children's clothes and bathing suits.

Safety-Minded

A decrease of 22 per cent in time lost because of accidents was recorded by the 36,000 employees of the Pullman company in 1945 compared with 1944.

Chemical Materials

Not only proteins but the two other basic food materials, fats and carbohydrates, constitute available substances for the manufacture of chemicals, as do such food accessories as vitamins and minerals. These materials, however, are rarely found in nature in a degree of purity comparable with that of some mineral deposits, usually occurring in heterogeneous form. These multiple combinations must be separated into their components if they are to be utilized in the chemical industry.

Your Home

One evening recently one of my neighbors dropped in while I was preparing my son's lunch for school the next day. She was surprised to see me fixing lunches at night to be eaten the next noon—and asked if they weren't too stale to eat. Well, I just laughed at her . . . and explained that by wrapping the sandwiches and desserts securely in waxed paper, and then placing in my refrigerator until morning, the lunches were just as fresh as when they were first made.

The main reason for preparing lunches at night is to save time in the morning. But you know, we mothers of today are very fortunate . . . most modern schools provide milk, hot cocoa and hot soup for the children. The price is very reasonable and with the sandwich and dessert prepared at home, the children will have a nourishing, healthful lunch.

I was surprised to learn that soup was served students as early as 1790 in Munich, Germany! 60 years later a similar plan was adopted in France and later in England. School lunches were introduced in this country in 1900, primarily intended for under-nourished children . . . but today, they're available to all our youngsters.

By the way, here is one of my favorite lunch box suggestions. Put in a small package of potato chips. The children enjoy them immensely and since they are wrapped in waxed paper—they'll stay fresh and tasty indefinitely! Try it, it's the surest way to break the lunch-box monotony I know.

Vegetable Omelet

A vegetable omelet makes a tasty dish for home supper. Either fresh or home-canned peas, corn, spinach and beans are delicious. They may also be used in combination, an excellent means of using up leftover vegetables.

"I'M A CATTLE BUYER AT THE STOCK YARDS"

I work for packing firms, selecting beef on the hoof in this greatest live animal market in the world. Every day, in my job, I see live stock from the western ranges and farm products from the Mississippi valley pour in here by rail and by road. That's what makes Northern Illinois the biggest center for food processing in the country. I like this job and it's to my advantage to work at the very hub of the food industry. My wife and kids enjoy living in Northern Illinois and get a lot out of its fine educational and recreational features.

This cattle buyer knows what he is talking about. He is one of a hundred thousand people employed in the food industry in Northern Illinois—where a billion dollars worth of food products are processed every year—where more fresh beef, mutton, lamb, pork, sausage and lard is produced than anywhere else in the world.

And because the Middle West is the nation's granary, Northern Illinois is also a huge grain distributing center. The Chicago Board of Trade handles 86 per cent of the entire nation's trading in wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, and soy bean futures—the largest market of its kind in the world. With an ideal balance among industries, trades and agriculture, this area is indeed the heart of the world's richest inland empire.

For the long range future, this evenly balanced economic area provides many outstanding advantages to business and industry. The theme of this advertisement is similar to one of a series emphasizing the outstanding advantages of this area, which we are publishing in national magazines and newspapers throughout the country. As a resident of Northern Illinois, these are facts you, too, should know.

Industries locating in this area have these outstanding advantages:
Railroad Center of the United States • World Airport • Inland Waterways • Geographical Center of U. S. Population • Great Financial Center • The "Great Central Market" • Food Producing and Processing Center • Leader in Iron and Steel Manufacturing • Good Labor Relations Record • 2,500,000 Kilowatts of Power • Tremendous Coal Reserves • Good Government • Good Living • Good Services for Tax Dollars. Candlelight Service Unites Shirley Harness and Joseph Nader, Jr.

Miss Shirley Harness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harness, became the bride of Joseph Nader, Jr., of Lake Villa, Saturday evening, Feb. 15 in a double ring, candlelight service at the Millburn Congregational church. Rev. Loren Messersmith officiated.

Hans Von Holwede played the wedding march and continued playing softly throughout the service. Sarah Brixen sang "Because" and "Always".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of bridal satin with a train, fitted bodice and a sweetheart neckline with beaded trim. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas with long satin ribbon streamers. Her fingertip veil was caught to a tiara of beading matching that her dress.

Miss Alice Harvey, of Antioch, maid of honor, wore a golden yellow dress of lace and net with matching veil and long yellow gloves. Miss Marlene Nader, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid dressed in maize yellow lace and net with matching veil and long gloves. Both carried yellow carnations and orchid gladioli with orchid trillite streamers. Virginia Harness, sister of the bride, served as Junior bridesmaid in blue lace and net and veil, matching those of the other attendants. She wore blue gloves and carried pink carnations and sweet peas with blue ribbon streamers.

Mr. William Effinger, of Lake Villa, served as best man and James Cunningham, of Deep Lake, as groomsmen. Winsor Dalgard, of Antioch and Earl Brixen, of Lake Villa, were the ushers.

Mrs. Harness wore a gray and white print two piece dress with pink hat and gloves. Her corsage was sweet peas. Mrs. Nader wore an aqua dress with a corsage of roses matching those of her hat.

The reception was held in the church dining room with Mrs. Bertha McCord, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Eva Burnette, great aunt of the groom pouring. Mrs. Winsor Dalgard cut the wedding cake.

After a short honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Fox Lake. The bride has been employed as secretary to Paul E. Brown of the Cleveland Browns for the past year. Mr. Nader is with the Public Service Co. and recently returned from serving two years in the navy and several months overseas in the submarine division. Both are graduates of Antioch High school.

Out of town guests were from LaPorte and Michigan City, Ind.; Niles Michigan, Kenosha and Madison, Wisconsin; Maywood, Sheridan and Waukegan, Ill.

LIBRARY NOTES

Two of the finest anthologies, to be printed in a long time, are Paul Angle's "The Lincoln Reader" and Vilhjalmur Stefansson's "Great Adventures and Explorations". The library has received these two books as gifts dedicated to the memory of William Hillebrand.

Paul Angle has drawn on the writings of sixty-five authors, reporters, and intimates of the Lincoln family and blended them into a single, vivid narrative of Lincoln's life from his birth to his assassination. Carl Sandburg and Ida Tarbell are well represented, also cabinet members, John Hay and Gideon Welles, and such diverse people as Albert Beveridge and Mrs. Lincoln's seamstress.

Vilhjalmur Stefansson is well fitted to edit a book adventures and explorations. He has found, told in his own words, the stories of Balboa, Frobenius, Drake, Erik the Red, Mackenzie, the polar explorers, and many other rebellious souls who journeyed to faraway places. Each section is preceded by an excellent map.

Mrs. John Cobb, who has been very ill with pneumonia at the Lake County hospital, for the past week, is recovering.

Miss Louise Erickson was the guest of Miss Beverly Durr for the week-end.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Open house Sunday afternoon in celebration of their Golden Wedding anniversary brought Mr. and Mrs. Austin Savage, east of Antioch 130 callers, which with other weekend visitors gave their registration book a total of 141.

It was a delightful occasion with the Savages receiving many beautiful flowers and gifts as tokens of respect from their many friends. Congratulatory cards were received from many distant points and from nearby friends who were unable to attend. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Savage's sister, Mrs. Hardy Mann, and her husband, of Waukegan. Mrs. Hart Webb, of Kenosha and Mrs. Curtis Wells poured at tea.

Maternity Dresses At MariAnne's, Lake St. Create An Illusion

Designers of new infanticipating styles are to be congratulated. That familiar plaint "I want a maternity dress that doesn't look like one", is a thing of the past now. In MariAnne's Maternity Room at 445 Lake Street, dresses, suits, and play clothes are built on the optical illusion theory.

The moderate price tags attached to each of the styles are likewise good news for mothers-to-be. An entire wardrobe won't set the family budget too far out of kilter. And you can have a few changes of costume scenery for the cost of that one "good" dress that used to be the chief standby.

Star of the collection is the new jerkin suit, which is being shown in fine wool, others with checked jacket.

et. Later this will be shown in cotton gaberdine with slacks to match. The jacket is a full cut box coat, the skirt a miraculously slim skirt silhouette.

Prints, preferred in many cases for their figure-concealing qualities are at the Maternity Room at 455 Lake st., in a great variety.

Money Is Bore, Comes Too Easy For This Man

Dog-Track Owner Has to Have Collars Made From His Shirt Tails.

LONDON. — Money always came easily to Sydney E. Parkes, so easily that at 65 he is fed up with being a Midas. At least he said as much when London reporters found him at home recently.

"What's the use of a big fortune?" — Parkes' income is something like 430,000 pounds a year — "when I have to get my collars made of material cut from my shirt tails?" he demanded gloomily, adding with a soupcon of bitterness: "Well, perhaps you can understand how it feels to be rich."

The reporters could not, but they nodded agreement with the notion that making one pound every minute was one of those things in life that couldn't be helped and had to be put up with as stoically as might be.

"I'd give every penny I have to be 30 again," Parkes sighed as he sank back in his armchair and clouded the circumambient air with smoke from one of his 100 pipes.

Owens Three Dog Tracks.

Parkes was ensconced beside the fire in his Georgian home, Devonshire house, Wandsworth, which he had bought a few weeks previously with its 28-acre estate, said to be the largest private property in the London county council area. He owns three greyhound racing stadiums and was being interviewed about a dispute between book-makers and Wandsworth stadium over betting pitches, which had just been decided in the high court. It was during this talk he revealed that his personal income last year was 430,000 pounds.

"It mostly went in income tax," he said. "I got 4,800 pounds on the first 20,000 pounds, and after that only 6 pence in the pound—10,000 pounds at the most. The rest I didn't even see."

While Parkes pondered the eternal verities that there is no way back across the ever-widening gulf of time, no staying the flight, all too swift, of the winged years, his visitors departed and headed in the general direction of Fleet street. Being reporters, therefore skeptics by nature and cynics through daily experiences with all and sundry, they harbored the suspicion that their host derived at least a modicum of consolation from the knowledge that the hard realities of the present were cushioned for him in a measure by his dog tracks.

Soft, Eh What?

Totalisator receipts at Wandsworth stadium alone last year were 3,250,000 pounds, of which Wandsworth stadium limited received 6 per cent. In 1942, the company netted 70,000 pounds; 1943, 74,000 pounds; 1944, 89,000 pounds; 1945, 197,000 pounds.

"Pretty soft, what!" soliloquized Archibald. "Pretty soft," echoed Percy.

At 27 Parkes was a successful real estate operator. Before he built the Wandsworth stadium 13 years ago he had sold on one development in seven months houses to the value of 750,000 pounds. He put up the stadium, he explained, "to give employment to 400 excellent workmen" who had served him well. His intention was to sell it and get out. But he went on a summer cruise and on his return found that the venture was doing so well he decided to stay in the greyhound racing business for good.

Russ Beggar Worth Fortune

Had Saved 260,000 Rubles

MOSCOW.—A 71-year-old Moscow street beggar—a former monk—was discovered to have amassed a personal fortune of 260,000 rubles. (The official ruble rate is 5.3 to the dollar, the diplomatic rate is 12 to the dollar.)

Press reports said Vasily Yefremovich Vasiliev, formerly a monk from a monastery on Lake Ladoga, had aroused suspicion by begging in the capital's Yelokhov Square.

Upon investigation, the reports continued, it was discovered that from 1930 until 1940 Vasiliev was a collective farmer and had a home garden in a village near Vologda but "was not satisfied with this," and came to Moscow to beg in 1940.

The paper said he had saved the 260,000 rubles in the six years since and that the whole sum had been "discovered."

Need Extra Bars to Keep

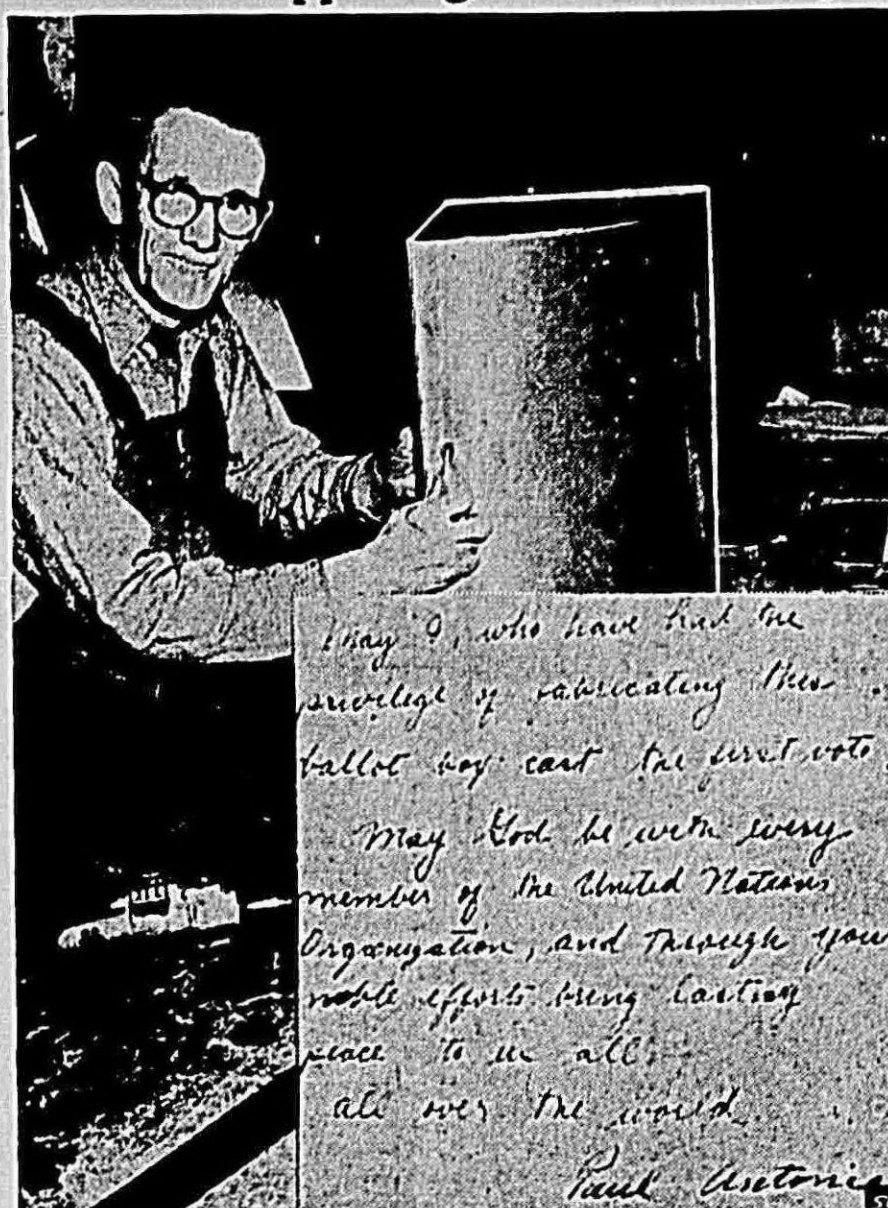

90-Pound Boy in Jail Cell

BOONEVILLE, KY.—A boy so small that extra bars had to be placed in his cell to keep him from slipping out was held for the grand jury on a murder charge.

Owsley County Judge J. M. King said he ordered Lester Little, 14, held on the charge under $5,000 bond in connection with the fatal shooting of the boy's cousin, Price Little, 23. Lester weighs only 90 pounds.

The cousins and four other boys were engaged in a shooting match, the sheriff said, and the Littles became involved in an argument over a watch chain.

Churches Supporting Mechanic's Prayer

NEW YORK. — When Paul Antonio, tinsmith, slipped "the first vato" into the UNO ballot box which he had just made, it was a plea that echoed prayers of religious people everywhere.

"May God be with every member of the United Nations Organization, and through your noble efforts bring lasting peace to us all—over the world."

Thousands of churches, regarding civic responsibility as a stewardship, are encouraging prayerful study of the United Nations program. The Methodist lay-activities leaders, as one part of the denomination's Crusade for Christ, are making this a mid-winter emphasis.

HEALTH HINTS for LIVESTOCK

AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR ANIMAL HEALTH

A NEW DISEASE OF POULTRY REPORTED

As though poultry raisers did not already have enough disease problems to cope with, a new disease has recently made its appearance in America.

A case of "Newcastle" disease.

It—and it may become a serious matter if it develops to the proportions it has assumed in several foreign countries.

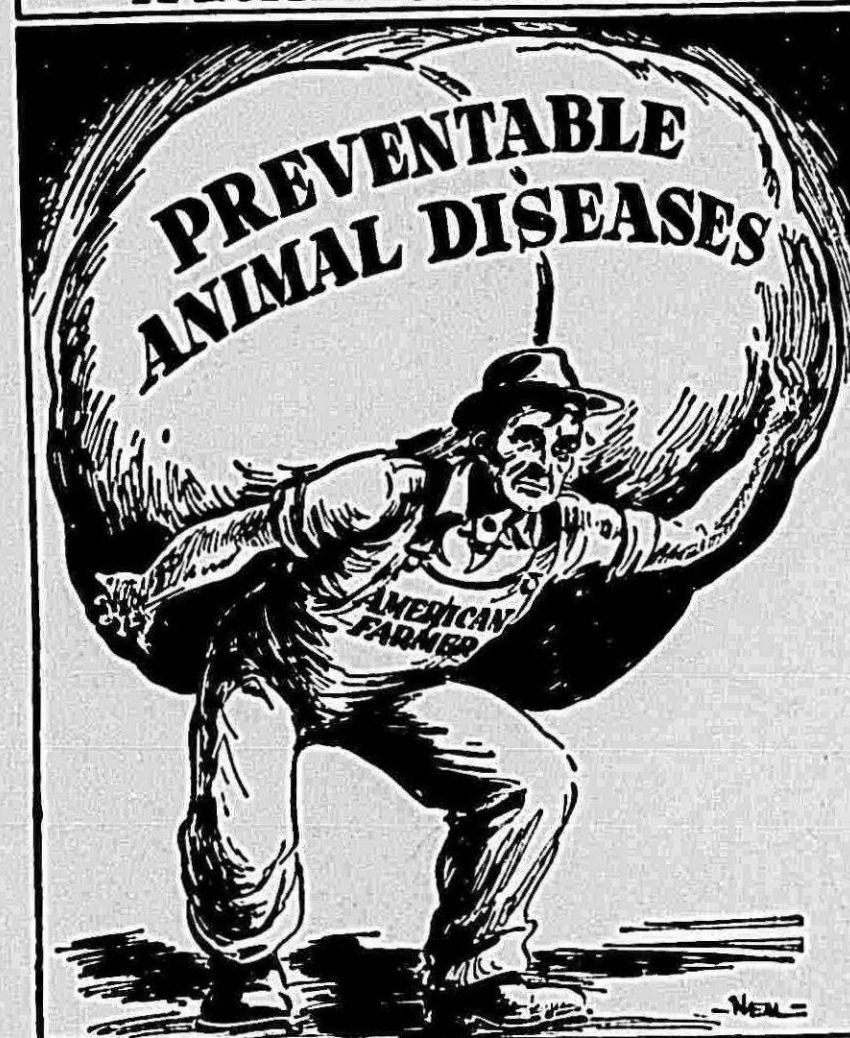

The condition is known as "Newcastle" disease, named for a locality in England. In some foreign countries the death losses in outbreaks have run as high as 100 percent, usually averaging 50 to 80 percent. Thus far, in the United States, the losses have ranged from 50 to 100 percent. In the sub-acute outbreaks, the death losses are lower, but it has taken several months to get the flocks back on a healthy basis. In the chronic type, there have been few deaths, but there has been a sharp loss in body weight and egg production.

Unfortunately, symptoms of Newcastle disease may resemble several other poultry diseases. There may be a sharp drop in egg production, reduction in feed consumed, and a condition that looks like a "cold," which spreads rapidly through the flock. Then the birds become dull, their feathers become ruffled, they breathe with difficulty, and sometimes there are nervous symptoms such as trembling, throwing the head backward, or pulling the head down between the legs. These signs may be confused so easily with other diseases that it usually requires a veterinary diagnosis to tell Newcastle disease from others.

The condition is further complicated by the fact that this disease affects birds of all ages—chicks, pullets, and layers; and it also affects turkeys, ducks, geese, guinea fowl, swans, parrots, and wild birds.

Plastic Work Gloves
A washable plastic coating has been developed for work gloves. The plastic is vinyl butyral. Tough but flexible, it can be cleaned with a solvent to remove grease, oil and grime.

Hot Potatoes
The best way to serve all potatoes is quick-cooked and steaming hot, for the longer they stand exposed to the air the more vitamin C they lose.

Watering Plants
Watering newly set plants helps to bring the soil in close contact with the roots and gives the plants a better chance to live and grow.

Our Concord grape was developed from a seed of a wild grape planted in 1843 by Ephraim Bull of Concord, Mass.

Robbery Victim Profits

From Attempted Holdup

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Mrs. Nadine Rathbone told police that two men attempted to rob her in her flower shop.

Her reply to the stickup order was: "If you need the money worse than I and my four children, take it." Instead of taking her money, they gave her $5.

Act of Kindness to Stranger Rewarded

Mercy Hospital Receives Gift of $615,000 for Charity.

CHICAGO.—Thirty-five years ago a penniless stranger made his way to Mercy hospital and asked to see the mother superior.

"Sister, I am sick," he said. "I need medical care that may require weeks or months. I have no money. I am not even a Catholic."

The Sisters of Mercy took in the stranger, just as they had taken many before him. He received the best care the hospital could give and several weeks later went on his way in good health. The sisters marked it down as a charity case.

They had forgotten all about the incident when, nearly a year later, a check for $250,000 arrived from Paris, France. The check was signed by Ferris Thompson, a native New Yorker living in Paris with his wife.

Thompson wrote that the man the sisters had treated was his friend. He added that he never had heard of the Sisters of Mercy and was not a Catholic, but that he wanted them to use the money to treat others in need.

Thereafter the sisters received each year a check for $5,000—$165,000 in all. Thompson died in 1913, but the checks continued to arrive, signed by his widow, the former Countess de Beau Repaire.

In 1930 the Sisters of Mercy erected a nurses' home near the hospital and named it Ferris Thompson hall, in memory of their benefactor.

One day recently Sister Mary Therese, administrator and superintendent of Mercy hospital, received a letter from a New York law firm informing her that Mrs. Thompson died last August 20. The estate had been probated, the lawyers wrote, and they were awaiting word as to where to deposit the $200,000 Mrs. Thompson had left the Sisters of Mercy in her will.

The money brought to $615,000 the return from one humane deed, and Sister Mary Therese said the final bequest would be regarded as an anniversary gift, commemorating the 100 years since six nuns arrived here from Pittsburgh to begin their long and extensive service to the community.

Radioactive Iodine Helps

Patient With Gland Tumor

CHICAGO.—Radioactive iodine—a product of atomic energy—administered to a patient with a malignant thyroid gland tumor brought "definite and lasting clinical improvement," the Journal of the American Medical Association said.

An article in the Journal, describing the 25 year case history of a male patient with a malignant tumor, said that treatment with radioactive iodine X-rays "pointed to an arrest if not a regression of the disease."

The compound, produced in large quantities in nuclear chain reacting piles, was given orally in the form of sodium iodine in water.

The study by three New York investigators concluded that radioactive iodine "seems to be an effective therapeutic agent in the control of this type of tumor." The report was made by S. M. Seidlin, L. D. Marinelli and Eleanor Oshry of the medical division and department of medical physics of the Montefiore hospital and the physics department of Memorial hospital in New York.

Japanese Colonel Takes His Life by Freezing to Death

TOKYO.—A Japanese colonel accused of wartime atrocities pondered for nine days how to destroy himself and then froze to death at the foot of Fujiyama, Allied headquarters disclosed.

Col. Masao Kusonose, about to go on trial for ordering the bayoneting and shooting of 140 Australian soldiers and some civilians on New Britain, was found dead in his boyhood barracks.

Near the body was an open diary in which the colonel wrote to the end. His neatly folded overcoat and carefully aligned boots lay nearby.

Entries in the diary showed that the Japanese officer spent the entire period mulling over how to kill himself.

Back to Life

By Maude Norman

WNU Features.

MARY STARR finished putting the dishes away, took off her apron and went out to the front porch. She glanced anxiously toward where the bright tip of her husband's cigarette showed in the darkness.

"It gets dark earlier now, doesn't it," she remarked.

She tried again. "Anything interesting happen today?"

James threw his cigarette over the railing. "Oh, sure, I had a very interesting day," he mocked. "As usual I took the 7:35 to town. I sold, or tried to sell suits. I took the 6:30 home as I have for the last six years."

"Perhaps if you started writing again you might sell something," she ventured.

"Write," he snorted. "I'm so tired at night I don't have an idea in my head. I do the same thing day in and day out, world without end, amen, and you think I can write. Write about what?"

The next morning Mary raced through her work, washed and dressed the baby, settled three-year-old Shirley in the sand-box to play, then got out her typewriter.

Two days later James received a letter, a delicately scented missive that Mary handed to him without a word.

"Dear Mr. Starr," the letter began. "About seven years ago I was confronted with a serious problem that a story of yours, 'Stella's Solution,' helped me to solve successfully. I should have written and thanked you then, only that I knew how men in your position are deluged with letters."

Sincerely,

Justine Owen."

James did not show the letter to Mary and she asked no questions. No more letters came to the house.

He went into the house, slamming the door.

although she knew he had answered. He began writing every evening, re-typing and sometimes rewriting the stories he had written and laid aside. Shortly after sending out his first story a check came for $25, not much, but enough to encourage him.

Mary rejoiced at the change in him, especially after he sold two more stories, until one day, going through the pockets of a suit she was sending to the cleaners, she found a note.

"DARLING! There I have said it and say it again. Darling! I love you. Does that seem strange? But why should it? Your letters, carefully worded though they are, tell me you love me too. Name a place where I can meet you. Your post office address makes you seem so far away."

"You mentioned responsibilities. In all this world there are only two things that matter. You, and the fact that I love you and will love you forever. You are my inspiration."

Hopefully,

James."

James found Mary unusually silent that evening. Although he tried to interest her in the day's happenings, she busied herself feeding the children and barely answered him.

"I sold another story," he said. "Looks like I can write after all."

"That's nice," she answered briefly, trying to pass him.

"Aren't you glad?" "Of course I am." "Then what's the matter?" Mary handed him the note she had found in his pocket. "I wasn't snooping," she said. "I found this when I emptied the pockets of your grey suit when I sent it to the cleaners."

James took the note. "I was hoping you would find it pretty soon," he grinned.

"WHAT?"

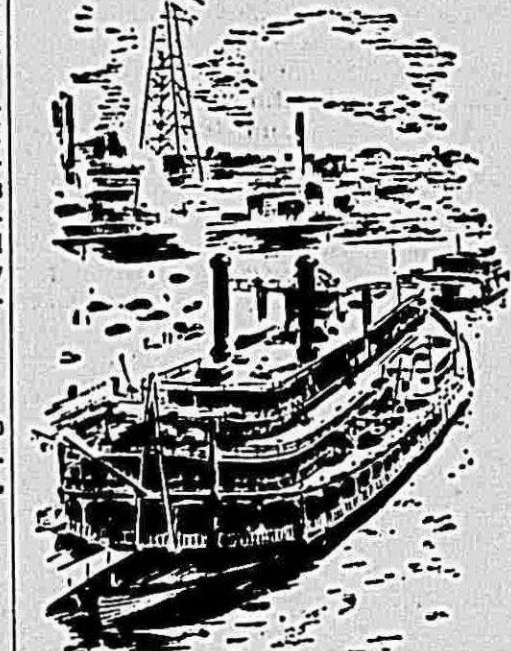

"I hope you don't think I'm as dense as I appeared to be. Oh, at first I fell for it. Long enough to sell a story and get a little self-confidence. Then I became curious to see the lady who wrote such lovely letters. A trip or two to the post office soon showed me she was someone I knew very well indeed."

"And you don't think I'm silly, do you? I only wanted to give you a little romantic interest. I thought it would help you."

"It certainly did help me, Silly. After you dragged me out of a black pit of self-pity and despair! I meant every word I wrote," he kissed her gently. "You really are my inspiration."

Lies the Might of America

LOUISVILLE'S INDUSTRY

Three-fifths of the output of Kentucky's 1,700 industries by dollar value comes from plants in Louisville. About 75,000 wage earners in the state are paid some $70,000,000 annually to turn out items valued at over $600 millions. It's a fine showing for an essentially agricultural state and will go far to guarantee Savings Bonds for years to come.

Pork Spoilage

Cold pork will rarely spoil, but mild fall days which raise the air temperatures above 40 degrees speed up the growth of spoilage germs that are on and in pork. Warm pork spoils as rapidly and for the same reason as warm milk.

Man Saw Death Parade From His Window in Cell

British Spy Tells of Czechs And Poles Beheaded; Girls Hanged.

BERLIN. — From the window of his cell in the "death house" of Plötzensee prison in Berlin, a young Englishman, condemned as a spy, watched for four years a grisly parade to the guillotine and gibbet, wondering each day when his turn would come.

He saw officers of the Polish general staff and Czech ministers lose their heads along with black market racketeers, and he saw the hanging of 12 French girls who sang the "Marseillaise" defiantly as long as they could. After that, the Germans inoculated condemned prisoners in the throat to paralyze their vocal cords and prevent them from singing or shouting. Finally, he was one of those who witnessed the killing by court order of 180 inmates of the prison for whom there was no room after the RAF bombed Plötzensee.

Friends Thought Him Dead.
For four years this Englishman who served in the French secret service was thought to be dead by his friends. He himself did not know that all this time the British government knew very well that he was alive. He did not learn until his liberation in 1945 that the British foreign office had put up a Nazi agent as a hostage against his execution.

This is the story, but recently disclosed, of Hugh William Arthur Oloff de Wet, 33 years old, who is writing a book of his experiences that will be published this year.

De Wet, as a French agent, was "jumping" from one European capital to another, when Hitler began his blitzkriegs. He was captured by the Gestapo in Vienna in July, 1939. After 18 months in solitary confinement, with his hands and feet manacled, he was tried by a people's court in Berlin.

Moved Ahead of Reds.
Condemned to the guillotine in January, 1941, he was sent to Plötzensee. He was moved to Brandenburg prison among 500 condemned men when the Russians approached and he was among 19 selected as negotiable prisoners to be taken to Hitler's redoubt in Bavaria.

At Halle he again was put in chains while waiting to be handed over to the SS. On the night of April 11, 1945, the Americans were approaching the city. He was moved out, but at Torgau he escaped and made his way back to Halle.

Halle police asked him to go into the American lines with the city's surrender terms. That was how De Wet found freedom from prisons.

Uses Gun to Club Raccoon;

Father and Son Are Killed

GARY, IND. — A father and son were dead because they used a gun to club a raccoon they caught in a trap near Burns' ditch, 10 miles east of Gary.

The victims were Paul Woodruff, 46, and his son, Paul Jr. Going to inspect the first of a number of game traps they had set, Paul Jr. walked a little ahead of his father. He found a large raccoon in the trap and swung at it with the butt of his 12-gauge, double-barrel shotgun.

The blow discharged one barrel, the blast striking Paul Jr. in the left thigh and groin.

His father ran to the scene, saw his son lying on the ground and the animal twisting in the trap.

He seized the shotgun and struck the animal again. The blow killed the raccoon but discharged the second barrel of the gun. Paul Sr. was struck in the abdomen.

The father crawled to the highway and signaled a motorist, who summoned help.

Family of 9 Dies in Suicide Pact; Bodies Roped Together

BETHUNE, FRANCE. — Police dragged the bodies of a French miner, his wife and seven children—all roped together—from La Bassee canal. The entire family died together in an apparent suicide pact. The victims were Kieber Dumortier, 40, his 35-year-old wife, Blanche, four sons and three daughters, ranging from 2 to 15 years of age.

A few days before Dumortier set fire to his home and threatened that his entire family would commit suicide.

Police began dragging the canal after a child's trousers were found floating. Police believed Dumortier jumped into the canal, pulling the roped members of his family after him.

Lone Fireman Gets Plenty of Escort at Blaze in Awning

INDIANAPOLIS. — Nine shining red fire-fighting trucks and emergency police cars roared up to the traction terminal building in downtown Indianapolis.

The milling crowd gathered for the big fire saw a lone fireman climb from the longest hook-and-ladder truck and put out a blaze in an awning with a hand extinguisher. The crowd, disappointed at not seeing a big blaze, hurriedly retreated.

LILAC TREE

By Ruth Thompson

WNU Features.

VIC strode ahead into the depot with his suitcase and Mary's grey tweed bag. Last night this had seemed such a perfect idea. Vic and she were dancing when he suggested it.

"We can be married right away over the line—no waiting around. Don't fuss about a lot of clothes," he had said. "Just wait. I'll dress you like a doll."

The first time he said that, Mary felt tingling from head to toe. She hated her job in the noisy restaurant. Every day the trays seemed heavier and clumsier to manage. Vic's cheery flirting at the counter had been a welcome diversion.

Vic set the bags down beside a long empty bench and she watched him hurry to the ticket-window. How queer, she thought, just two years ago, when she left Pine Creek—it was April then, too—she had entered the city through this same station.

Then Mom had tucked a spray of purple lilac in the strap of the suitcase—"So you'll not be forgetting the lilac tree."

Mary smiled. She was remembering how she had called even the tiniest shrub a lilac tree. Someone came and sat close to her. Vic, it was, with the tickets in his hand.

"What are you grinning about?" he asked. "Oh, nothing," she answered.

He let it go at that. He laid his arm across her shoulders, drew her close, while his pudgy fingers kept squeezing her arm. His lips almost touched hers.

Mary turned her face away, trying to ignore him. She noticed a woman who had entered the depot.

Vic's cheery flirting at the counter had been a welcome diversion.

The woman carried an armful of hauntingly sweet lilacs. She brushed past Mary. One spray fell near her.

"Vic," she said, touching his coat sleeve. "Pick up that lilac for me, won't you?"

"You're crazy. That weed! Why would you want that?" he asked. "Just you wait. I'll get you roses, a roomful of red roses."

MARY did not answer. She was seeing lilac trees, purple and white, all in bloom back home. She could almost smell their sweetness. Vic swore under his breath. Startled, Mary turned to him. A swarthy man, with hat pulled low, was approaching them. His face was vaguely familiar.

"Who is he, Vic?" Mary whispered, as she tried to recollect where or if she had met him. Vic paid no attention to her. Instead he spoke sharply to the man.

"What's the big idea, following me here? Didn't I tell everyone to lay low? I mean it. Mary and me are going away to—going away to be hitched."

Mary noticed uneasily how he hesitated as he spoke. The stranger's eyes shifted to Mary. She caught a glimpse of a scar high on one cheek, of shifty, dark eyes.

Something clicked. That picture in last night's paper. The column about another hold-up. Mary shivered—like when someone dropped a lump of snow down her back when she was a kid.

Then—"It's like this, boss—" He was whispering something in Vic's ear. "Boss." Startled, Mary tried to listen closer.

Vic swore again. His voice was harsh. "No!" he shouted.

Mary shivered. She looked around, hoping no one heard him.

"Listen, Baby," he said, turning to her. "I've got some business, some mighty important business to tend to. You wait here. I'll be back, pronto."

MARY watched them step into a large flashy car. At first she was frightened. Then there was no feeling in her body but a queer numbness. Only her brain stirred. It was clearing, like a mist rising after sun-rise.

Suddenly she grabbed up her grey tweed bag and almost ran to the ticket window. There were only two ahead of her. Breathlessly she asked the agent about the train to Pine Creek.

"Yes, Ma'am! In three minutes, better hurry," he said as he stamped her ticket.

Clutching the bit of paper in her fingers when he handed it to her, all of a sudden she felt as if she had been running through a dark, dense forest and had that minute stepped out into the warm clean sunlight.

High School Baseball Players May Try Out With Chi-Cubs at Peru

The Chicago Cubs will hold their 1947 summer training camp from July 7 through August 29 in Peru, Illinois, it was announced today by Jack Sheehan, director of the Cubs' farm system.

Arrangements were completed for use of the municipal ball field in Peru with Leslie Hoenschel, superintendent of the city's recreation department.

The training camp, previously conducted at Wrigley Field, Chicago, was switched to Peru because of the availability of the field for daily workouts during the training session.

High school graduates who want to play in organized baseball will receive tryouts at the Peru camp upon writing to Jack Sheehan, Wrigley Field, Chicago, 13, Illinois, who will assign reporting dates. Only boys who have been graduated from high school are eligible for the training camp, Sheehan emphasized.

Hunter Kills Big Deer; Excitement Too Much

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. — Delae E. Johns shot a deer, then excitedly shouted: "I got him . . . I got him."
Relatives on a hunting trip with Johns at nearby Ellery Center rushed up to view the kill. They found the hunter and the hunted both dead. Jones had died of a heart attack.

Pump New Blood Into Doomed Baby; Saved

Transfusion Foils Death for Nine-Day-Old Infant.

BOSTON. — Diane Seavey, given only a few hours to live at birth because of a blood condition, was alive and well nine days later as doctors disclosed how they pumped all the blood from her and replaced it with a special RH negative type blood. The operation was completed in a few hours.

Diane was suffering from erythroblastosis — commonly known as hemolytic anemia. Anti-bodies in the baby's blood, set up because her mother had "RH negative" blood and her father "RH positive," were destroying the child's red blood cells.

A plastic tube, devised at Children's hospital, enabled doctors to pump out the poisoned blood and transfuse a special RH negative type blood into the baby simultaneously.

The tube was inserted into the navel and up the navel vein close to the heart. One valve put the special blood in as the other carried off the poison blood—at the rate of a pint and a half of the blood-bank blood to a pint of the baby's.

Doctors said that Diane was the 12th baby treated through this new method. All have survived and are normal. Previously a 40 per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis. Attaches at Children's hospital explained that under the older and slower method, anti-bodies were poisoning the blood of infants even during the transfusions.

Fight on Disease Reveals New Heroism by Convicts

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. — Another story of wartime heroism at Statesville penitentiary is contained in a report of dysentery experiments from the laboratories of the state department of public health.

Dr. Howard J. Shaughnessy revealed that 150 prisoners volunteered to serve as human guinea pigs in tests of a vaccine to protect soldiers and sailors against the bowel infection.

In his early explorations, Dr. Shaughnessy inoculated thousands of mice with Shigella bacilli, most devastating of the germs causing dysentery.

The mice then were treated with sulfadiazine and many of them got well.

Results furnished clues but positive results depended on human tests. Warden Joseph M. Ragen of Statesville was consulted.

He put the matter up to the convicts with the statement that it was an experiment to "help human beings all over the world."

When the call for volunteers was made, all 150 in the room stood up. Many of them previously had volunteered to undergo tests to find a cure for malaria.

The men were fed the germs in milk, in water and then in capsules. Fifty-one came down with moderate or severe dysentery and 32 with mild cases.

"Every man has fully recovered."

Army Reveals $60,000,000 Military Building Program

WASHINGTON. — A $60,000,000 military construction program, including new buildings and conversion of 7,713 temporary dwellings, has been authorized for immediate action by army engineers, the war department announced.

Material obtained in dismantling war camps will be used for the housing, which will be for both officers and enlisted men and their families.

The dwellings are the first permanent ones to be constructed since the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor five years ago.

Use of State Archives Building as Hideaway During War Revealed

How the U. S. government planned use of the Illinois State Archives building here as a wartime hideaway for such famous documents as Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation was disclosed here this week by Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett. He said it had been planned to store them here because of possible bombing of the national capital city.

Most of the nation's famous historical records are in Washington. When, during the dark days of the war, that city was on the spot as a possible prime target for enemy bombers it was decided to remove them to a safer place and a number of possible sites were considered by National Archives officials in Washington.

For a while coal mines in West Virginia used by the Library of Congress to store precious legislative records were considered but discarded because of underground moisture. Finally the Illinois Archives building was decided on but just as the transfer was to be made there came a favorable break in the war for the Allies and the plan was abandoned.

The Secretary said that the document in which Lincoln proclaimed freedom for the slaves, along with other priceless records such as declarations of war, peace treaties, etc., were gotten together in Washington, had been packed and crated and were about to be sent to Springfield.

Then, Mr. Barrett said, came word of Allied success in North Africa and it was decided to wait on further developments. Later as the war continued favorable the plan to transfer them was abandoned and they were kept in Washington. But the secret was kept for reasons of security and only became known recently. According to Miss Margaret Norton, the state Archivist, the investigators from Washington National Archives selected the Illinois building from the view point of its construction such as the materials which were used and its general all-around safety.

Farm Bureau Has Best Year Officers Report, Membership Is 1,409

New Directors Chosen at Annual Meeting at Grayslake Last Saturday

Membership in the Lake County Farm bureau has reached 1,409, an all-time high, according to reports made at the annual meeting in Grayslake Saturday.

Four hundred persons, many from Antioch township, attended the meeting which was considered the best ever held by the bureau. E. E. Elsbury, president, of Grayslake, was in charge.

John Spiehr, Wadsworth and Albert Simonson, Gurnee, were re-elected directors for three years and Ronald Paddock, McHenry; Walter Sage, Grayslake; and Henry Knigge, Mundelein, were chosen to succeed Lloyd Fisher, George Brainard, and Otto Metzler for the same length of term.

Floyd E. Morris, Buffalo, Ill., state vice president, was the main speaker. He told the farmers that if they want security and staple prices they will have to submit to some kind of regulation, "for, said he, one cannot be expected without the other."

"You farmers will determine, however, the nature of the program the state organization prepares for you," he said. "The program that is the greatest benefit to agriculture will be the greatest benefit to the nation as a whole."
